Volume 9, No. 1

March 1976

Hello, Cousins,

Happy Bicentennial to all of you. 1976 promises to be a year full of surprises, what with bicentennial celebrations going on in nearly every town and city in the nation. Now is the time to watch for little tidbits in the hometown paper, telling of early settlers, and early events; biographical sketches, anything at all that would shed light on our people. Some papers will start genealogical columns this year, some will print cemetery lists of veterans of the wars of the nation. Watch these. Clip and send us any information pertaining to WEEDMAN or allied lines.

We want to thank all of you who responded to the postcards. This is our way of finding out if you're still interested in receiving the Newsletter. And we thank those of you who have sent money. It will be used for postage and reproduction expenses, but let us say that we now have enough money; what we need most now is NEWS. We need to take advantage of this historical year in our nation's history and impress you all with the realization that more genealogical data is going to be available, and that we should all be alert to find it.

We have some news, and some sad news at that. Herbert Miller and Leon P. Myers have passed away recently. Our sympathy and consolation go out to the ones left behind; may the Lord bind up their grief, and give them strength to go on.

HERBERT MILLER

Herbert Miller of Magnet, Indiana died at 5:45 p.m. December 24 1975 at Muhlenberg Community Hospital at Greenville, Ky., after an illness of ten years. On April 16, 1912, in Hawesville, Ky., he married Forrest Emma Davison, daughter of Joseph, and Mary E. (Weedman) Davison, of WILLIAM's line. Herbert was a member member of Modern Woodman of America Lodge for 57 years.

Besides Forrest Emma, he leaves two sons; Joseph of Newburgh, Ind., and Robert, of Greenville, Ky.; a brother, John of Colorado and two sisters, Emma Genet and Ethel Lowry. Also three granddaughters Mrs. Mary Evelyn Ward of Derby, Ind., Mrs. Roberta Raymer of Greenville, and Mrs. Brenda J. Muldin of Norfolk, Va., and five great grandchildren. A daughter, Mary Lorraine Park preceded him in death in 1940. He was buried Dec. 27 in Cart Cemetery, in Perry Co., Ind
